Inspired by true events

When the notorious GTA gang begins killing drivers with no apparent motive, it seems as if all is lost. Investigating these cases are 2 detectives, who must overcome their own personal conflicts and work together to solve these seemingly random crimes that are tormenting their city.

With more bodies piling up each day, the media getting involved and a potential mole keeping the gang one step ahead, the pressure to solve the case continues to build. What used to be a calm and peaceful route has just become the Death Highway.

Murder... in the fast lane
