'Marry Me Now' is the emotional, fun and empowering docu-reality that gives women everywhere the chance to take charge of their own fate. They will give their partners the surprise of a lifetime after planning an ambush proposal and wedding in just 3 days! But will they leave broken-hearted or bursting with joy?

- A modern and empowering take on relationships
- Filled with tension, comedy, romance, and fun!
- A unique twist on the traditional big moment
- Dramatic ending to every episode!

How it Works:

Each week we follow one determined woman, who has had enough of waiting for a ring. She will take the lead in her life and relationship, and prepare her own wedding in just a few days and all without the groom-to-be's knowledge!

- Day 1 : Meet the couple - while the woman gets ready to organize her wedding in a few days, the man thinks they are on a home renovation show!
- Day 2 : Preparation day - our leading lady arranges her dream wedding, from dress and suit to hair, makeup and rings.
- Day 3 : The big day - she will surprise her partner in her wedding dress with an ambush proposal! If he says no, it's all over... but if he says yes, they will tie the knot on the spot!
